Communication with you

In order to communicate with you, we process the following ordinary personal data: your name, email address, telephone number and other contact information. The data is collected directly from you. Consequently, we may base the processing on either

- the performance of a contract in accordance with art. 6 (1)(b) of the GDPR and/or

We will store personal data as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purposes mentioned.

Transfers to countries outside the EU/EEA

We will generally not transfer your personal data to countries outside the EU/EEA. We will inform you when such transfer takes place and ensure that such transfers will only take place for the specific purposes mentioned above and we will always ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place, using e.g. "Standard Contractual Clauses for the Transfer of Personal Data to Third Countries", published by the Commission of the European Union together with any supplementary measures assessed as necessary, or any other contractual agreement approved by the competent authorities.
